Saturday, June 23rd
11:00AM

Baue Funeral and
Memorial Center
3950 West Clay,
St. Charles, MO 63301

We invite you to attend our 9th Annual Seeds of Hope Program. This program is designed to help families cope after a loss of their loved one. Gather with us as we share information on the grief process. Director of Grief Services, Kelly Karavousanos, LPC, CT will present ideas on how to care for and support yourself and your family.

Our program includes a reading of names and a beautiful Memorial Planting Ceremony. Refreshments will be served and we will have a special keepsake gift for you and your family. All are welcome and we hope you will join us and bring your family and friends.

Voted the Best

Baue has been voted the Best Funeral Home in St. Charles County by families like yours for over 20 years. We have also been recognized as the Best in St. Charles County by a number of national organizations.

Everything you need in 1 location.

We offer families the convenience of everything in one place. From our beautiful chapel and gathering rooms to our catering and reception centers to our floral shop and graveside services, at Baue you will find our facilities the most convenient for you and your family's service needs.

The best choice for today's families.

Services for every budget, designed to meet your family's needs, we work with you to stay within your financial needs and budget. We also offer advantages for those that choose our funeral homes and cemetery together for their services. Additionally, our New "state of the art" Care and Cremation Center offers a private place for those preferring to be present and spend time together for final goodbyes.

Trusted by families for over 80 years.

The residents of St. Charles and St. Louis County have placed their trust in Baue more than any other provider to care for their family.

At Baue.com, you can learn about our commitment to serving families (for more than 80 years), watch videos, order flower and view obituaries.
